

TAKE YOUR PRACTICE TO THE NEXT LEVEL

Jama Allers, CMC, CMA-C

Jama has more than 25 years of healthcare experience including extensive knowledge in the areas of practice related matters including risk management, human resources, medical records management, as well as fraud and abuse compliance. Currently, Jama is a leader in educating physicians regarding profitability, negotiating insurance contracts, and navigating appeals and grievances as an employee of the Maryland State Medical Society.

Educating physicians and practices is a high priority for Jama.

Jama has presented at many Maryland venues such as The Maryland Medical Convention, Medical Group Management Association (MGMA), the Maryland Acupuncture Society and the Professional Association of Health Care Office Management (PAHCOM). Jama also works to educate medical staff through the office risk management seminar series for a medical liability insurance company. Topics range from patient safety, analyzing insurance contracts, and documentation, coding compliance.

As a physician advocate, Jama meets regularly with CMS and third party insurance carriers advisory committees to support and promote the interests of doctors everywhere. She also participates as an advisor to the National Sickle Cell Disease Registry. Jama has worked with many regional committees and organizations on HIPAA privacy and security compliance.

In October 2004, Jama received the Dr. Henry P and Page M Laughlin Award for distinguished administrative services to the physicians of Maryland.

Jama is a contributing writer with a standing practice management column in the MedChi Physician. She also has contributed articles to Maryland Medicine and The Medical Bulletin of Greater Baltimore.
