

TAKE YOUR PRACTICE TO THE NEXT LEVEL

Laura Oestrike, CMOM

Laura has more than 29 years of experience in the healthcare field and is a member of the American Osteopathic Association of Medical Office Managers and American Association of Medical Assistants. She is very well rounded within the medical office having held most all positions and is also a Certified Medical Assistant. Her medical career began in the hospital setting as a biller and coder, attending a multitude of conferences, seminars, etc., to maintain her billing and coding experience to the highest level. Laura excelled to the position of Practice Manager and has upheld this position for the last 12 years, becoming a Certified Medical Office Manager. She started the medical offices from their operational beginning and has trained staff and physicians to run the office effectively. Her position requires all aspects of maintaining a medical office, including OSHA, HIPAA, human resources, payroll, taxes, labor law, establishing policies, purchasing and being the compliance officer. Laura is very enthusiastic about all aspects of the medical office and very excited to share the experiences with others.
