

Monna Johnson is a professional with over 20 years of healthcare experience. Her extensive background in healthcare includes working in front office, billing, coding and transcription in Michigan and Ohio. Monna has taught office management, CPT, Principles of Coding, Medical Terminology, Medical Billing, HIPAA, Business law and economics in Michigan and Ohio. She has developed computer based training for physician offices and taught multiple software applications.

Monna has served as Vice President for an Office Management Association, Consulted in office management/practices and been a financial manager in a large regional healthcare system. She holds degrees in Business Administration/Office Management, Instructional design (Formerly Education Curriculum Design) and Adult Education. She is a CMOM, Certified Secretary and currently working on CMC and CMIS certifications.