

About Sherita

Sherita Eastmon Sutton,
MPH, CMA

Sherita has more than 20 years of well-rounded healthcare experience. She wears many hats of knowledge in clinical, education, leadership and medical practice coding. She is a Public Health Educator and Public Information Officer at Hoke County Health Department in Raeford, NC where she is responsible for planning and implementing health education programs, and serves as the health department spokesperson. This includes being responsible for developing, organizing and carrying out health education programs with and through the local health department to meet the needs of the community, internal and external communication, media relations, website content and publications related to ongoing operations of the Health Department.

She has served as a Director of Patient Experience and Diversity, where she was responsible for overseeing all aspects of patient satisfaction. This included serving as the liaison between the hospital and the external vendor, report creation/distribution, communication of scores, and served as a change agent within the hospital organizational targets, coached and mentored, training and monitored best practices within the industry.

She has experience in adult education, customer service, diversity training, and staff development. She holds an AAS degree in Medical Assisting, BA degree, and Master in Public Health. She is also a Certified Medical Assistant. She enjoys teaching and is able to convey complex subject matter into easy understandable terms.